What to Bring?

This is an informal gathering. Shorts & your favorite library t-shirts are appropriate. Ithaca weather can be unpredictable. You may want to bring a sweatshirt/sweater, umbrella, & raincoat. Other items that have been handy in the past include: games (for evening R & R), radio, coffeepot & a flashlight. We will have access to Cornell's exercise facilities & pool. You may also want to bring good walking shoes as Ithaca & Cornell have many places to explore.

Accommodations

The rooms are in suites that accommodate five. Each suite has its own bath & air conditioning.

About the Program

This is an opportunity to sharpen your leadership skills for your library media center, your building, your district, your professional organizations, and your community. You will increase your understanding of the components of leadership, identify your own leadership skills and professional priorities, and apply leadership strategies to the challenges we face in our schools and our profession. You will have time and opportunities to connect with other professionals and establish networks to work together to effect change.

About Betty Bankhead

Betty Bankhead is the co-author with Dawn Vaughn and Janet Nichols of Write It! A Guide for Research (Libraries Unlimited, 1999) and is the staff development coordinator of the Colorado Power Libraries Project featured in the December 2002 issue of School Library Journal. She has developed this workshop for the AASL Leadership Forum Planning Committee and brings a national initiative to New York State.

Who should attend?

- School Library Media Specialists
- School Library System Directors
- School Library Supervisors
- Technology Coordinators
- Youth Services Librarians

All affiliates and school library systems are encouraged to have representatives at the Leadership Retreat (turnkey training opportunities!). It is also open to all who want to sharpen their leadership skills! Continuing Education hours will be offered to all.
